

Yano Demonstrates Omnia

Grammy Award winner Kirk Yano was in Munich as a special guest of Omnia.

The owner of Planet To Planet recording studios in New York helped demonstrate the new Omnia-6cd digital processor which is designed specifically for audio mastering studios.

Yano has done recording and mixing work for Mariah Carey, Blues Traveler, Miles Davis, Public Enemy and Puff Daddy, among other artists.

“Omnia-6cd is a huge help in mastering CDs and even movie soundtracks,” said Yano. “Although I have only had the product about a month, I cannot imagine being without it. It makes everything sound great.”
