Telos Console Director ™
(Telos Electronics Packages 0326-0000 & 0327-0000)
Operator's Guide

Telos Electronics Packages 0326-0000 and 0327-0000 are distributed as part of complete assemblies available from major console manufacturers.

 - For use with Telos One-X-Six, Direct Interface Module, and 1A2 Interface only.

 - Console Directors are connected to the Telos interface in the same manner as the Telos Switch Console (use the RJ-11 style connector on rear). See Telos User's Manual for details.

DTMF Dial Pad
for dialing

Busy
All
● Causes lines to become "busy" (engaged) to incoming callers.

(Reserved for future use)

Record Start
Button
● "arms" Record mode (see interface manual)

Line Buttons
Caller 2
● on-air line controls

Line Buttons
Caller 1
● on-air line controls

Status Symbols
See reverse for details.

Drop
Buttons
● Drops any unlocked calls in that column.

(Not Used)

Hold
Buttons
● Places any unlocked calls in that column on hold.

Next
● Places the next caller on Caller 1 Fader.

Delay Dump
Button
● operation varies (ask your CE how this is used in your facility).

For additional information see User's Manual

Telos Console Director Status Symbols™

This line is currently idle.

This line is in use elsewhere.

This line is ringing.

This line is on hold.

This line is on-air on the Caller 1 fader (i.e. "Main").

This line is on-air on the Caller 2 fader (i.e. "Conference").

This line is on-air & locked - Caller 1 fader
Pressing the left line button will unlock this line.

This line is on-air & locked - Caller 2 fader
Pressing the right line button will unlock this line.

This line has been "busied" by the busy-all function
Press "X" button to cancel busy-all.

Button not used.